FAQs

Can we bring our own food?

We don't permit any external catering, however, please do not hesitate to share with us any bespoke requests as its likely our team of Chefs will be able to accommodate these for you.

Are you able to cater for dietary requirements?

Our Events Coordinator will confirm any dietaries with you prior to arrival, with confirmation required no later than two weeks prior to your event.

Are we able to bring our own decorations?

You can bring in your own decorations for your event and where possible our Events Team will help with the setup of these. We would ask that nothing is tacked to the painted white walls.

What time can we access the Function Room?

Where possible we will try and offer early access to ensure there is plenty of time for set up and decorating. Our Events team will be able to confirm the early access time approximately two weeks prior to your event date.

Can we book bedrooms alongside our event?

Based on availability, we will always offer discounted rates for guests, these will be confirmed at booking stage only.

Can we provide our own DJ?

You are more than welcome to provide your own DJ/ Entertainment for your event, providing the company is able to provide a PAT testing certificate and public liability paperwork. Our Events Team will be able to confirm directly with the company timings for access, as well as details of the sound limitations prior to their arrival.

FAQs

What time does the music have to finish for an evening event?

Our standard finish time for the music is midnight, with bar closure at 11:30pm. Should you wish to extend to a later finish time we offer a late licence which is an additional £180.00. This extends our licence bar closure to 00:30am with the music off at 1am. In addition to the £180 fee, there are also 12 'late license bedrooms' that have to be booked by guests of the party, to secure the later finish.

How do we go ahead and book our event?

To go ahead and book your event, we would ask for a signed copy of our booking form, which comes over to you via DocuSign for e-signing. We would also ask for a deposit payment at this stage, which is typically 10% of the booking total, with the final balance due no later than two weeks prior to arrival.
